Programs

Robbie Bos, Barbara McPherson,
Melinda Monteen and Julie Tracy

Attendance at workshops has been down. So, the Program Committee has a question for you. What do you want in the way of workshops for 2019???
Or, should we take a one-year hiatus? We'll be asking your opinion at the August meeting.

August 13 Guild Meeting

ALERT!!! Doors will NOT open until 6:30 to allow time for the library committee to prepare for the GIANT book giveaway event.

There will be a double presentation at this meeting: "Mystery Quilt Reveal" by Janis Benedict and Karen Hogan, and "Comfort Quilts" by Signe James. The members that have been working on the Block-A-Month, under the tutelage of Janis Benedict and Karen Hogan, will be sharing their finished quilt tops.

Signe will share some of the Comfort Quilts that have been created by our members. She will bring her traditional prepared bundles and packets. There will also be the high-spirited auction/

From our President

Dian Robinson

Where has the summer gone? It seems like just a short time ago we were anticipating the Seven Sisters Quilt Show and waiting for the MidState Fair, and now we're on the cusp of August. Whew!

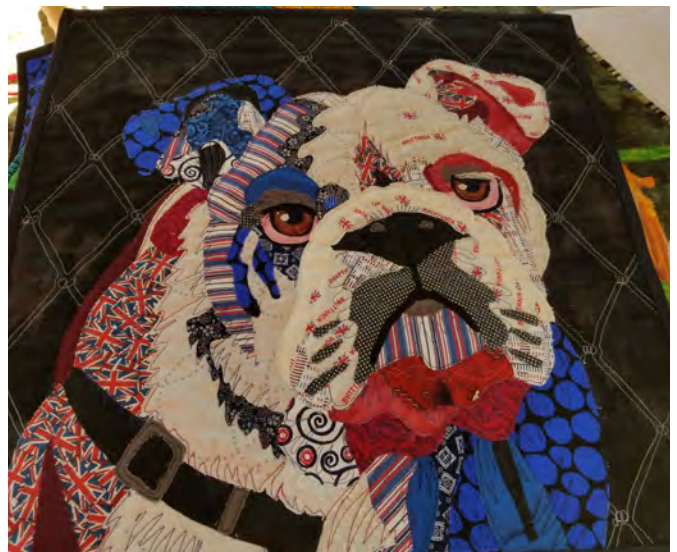

The year's Seven Sister quilt show was very profitable for all the guilds involved; each guild made over $4800 and we have begun talks of how we can improve for next year.

I'm especially looking forward to attending one of more of the Bonnie Hunter workshops that will be offered. She does a lot with scraps and as a quilter, don't we always have scraps?

I got to attend the Northern California Quilt Council's meet the teachers event with Karen H. and it was really exciting. Each speaker explained their lecture and workshop offerings in three minutes or less and there was lots of time to go around to each speaker and see the projects close up, ask questions and get more information. What a great opportunity for securing program information! One of the speakers offers a class in which you can create a raw edge collage applique of your pet. How Fun!

We will begin asking for volunteers for the nominating committee for next year's board, so if you could help or if there is a position you thought you might want to try, please speak up.

Our program is a double-header with Block-a-Month Mystery Quilt reveal and Signe with her comfort quilts. See you on the 13th!

give-away of some of her fabulous scraps.

September 10 Guild Meeting

Shelly Swanland's, new, revised and exciting trunk show. You won't want to miss her new presentation.

October 8 Guild Meeting

A trunk show by our own Sue Fiscalini. Sue's work never disappoints. Wait 'till you see her latest creations. Stay tuned for more about her trunk show in the September newsletter.

November 12 Guild Meeting

The UFO reveal is finally here. Those that signed up to complete their UFOs will have an opportunity to share their completed projects. Wahoo!!!

Guild Library Give-Away

Irene Dailey

Our August meeting is when it's happening! Bring a bag with you to the guild meeting to take away the books that you choose. All of the books are free to guild members. Doors will open at 6:30 for this event.

Do you have books that you'd like to donate? Come early and put them out, also!

This fun time will end at 7:00, when the guild meeting begins!

Block A Month Mystery Quilt

Karen Hogan and Janis Benedict
If you participated in this guild event please bring your finished quilt or quilt top to the August meeting for Show and Tell.

SLO Public Library Quilting Display

Irene Dailey

I hope everyone was able to get to the library in June to see the amazingly beautiful display of all sorts of quilting that we do! Thanks to Sue Barker for taking it on and being so successful with it!

Community Quilts

Signe James

In addition to all of the fun things that programs said I would be doing for the August program, I want to repeat something we did last year that was a nice touch. So, quilts that come in for donation at the meeting will be shown in Show and Tell style as part of the Community Quilt Program portion of the meeting. If you are a regular donor, or an occasional donor, or a new donor, try to bring a quilt to the meeting so you can show it off yourself and tell us anything you want about your quilt. Thanks for participating.

We need a representative from our guild to head up Security. Would you like to volunteer some time to be our Security person, or to be part of

of the 2019 show in another way? Do you have questions about the show committees? Please feel free to contact me (Irene Dailey)! I will present more details about the show at the guild meeting, so be sure to come!

White Gloved Thank You

Elaine Paulson

Thank you to my white glove/hostess volunteers! This is a belated thank you to all of you lovely ladies that volunteered for the quilt show this year. The response was wonderful and I sincerely thank all of you – your help was super appreciated!!

Membership

Don't miss out on receiving QuiltSpeak and this year's roster! 43 members from 2017-2018 have not yet renewed. Send in your $20.00 check and "Membership Renewal Form", available at: <http://www.sloquilters.org/membership/index.html> or bring them to the August meeting. The meeting will be a fun one, so be sure not to miss it!

Thanks to all.
