December 10 Guild Meeting

SLO Quilters Annual Holiday Dinner. The dinner will begin at 6:00pm. The main dish will be lasagna provided by the Program Committee. Each of you are asked to bring your favorite salad or dessert. You don't want to miss out on the quilt square BINGO game that's being coordinated by Tammy Riley. The evening should be great fun!!! This is our Annual Winter social event.

From our President

Dian Robinson

Ah, November!

It's hard to imagine we are entering the winter when it is 72 degrees outside but so is life in San Luis Obispo. I'm so excited to see the UFOs at this month's meeting and happy I finished mine in time. How does the weather affect all of you? Does it have to be cold in order to start the soup season, pumpkin everything and slow cooker mania. We are still barbequing on a regular basis so no difference here. My column is short this month, not much to share except my witch quilt from 30 years ago. I see so many mischoices (never mistakes, right?) but it is one of my first and favorites. See you on November 12!

Signe James

I am asking for a little help this month. I was in an auto accident October 22, and am not going to be in great shape for a while (standing is difficult). So, my sewing time is nothing to hopefully "limited" sometime soon. It would be great if for this month and next, you could dig out those bundles and packets that you are saving for just the right time and get a few of them finished off. I thank you in advance, and hope to see you at the November guild meeting.

Meeting Minutes

Barbara Klaubert

Meeting called to order by President Dian R at 7 PM

Announcements: Announcements of various activities are on the rear table. Thomas was a guest this evening. The Slate of officers for next year was announced. It is Tammy R President, Kelsey P Vice President, Barbara K Secretary, and Barbara M Treasurer.

Community Quilts: Twenty-two quilts were turned in this evening. Six adult and 5 children's quilts have been donated to people affected by the Carr Fire. Last year extra Christmas stockings went to the Alpha organization and they are interested in getting more this year. Melinda will deliver any that are turned in.

Hospitality: Many lovely prizes as always.

Programs: The program next month is the sharing of the completed UFOs. For the December Holiday event on December 10 at 6pm the guild will supply the main dish. Members can bring a dish of their choice. Tammy discussed a bingo game to be played at the December meeting and provided instructions for making fabric bingo cards which will later go to Signe for SART quilts.

Show and Tell: Lovely, interesting quilts as always.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 PM followed by a program on making fabric stars by Julie T.

Quilt Guild Bingo (The bingo cards will be collected at the end of the night to be used in charity quilts)

For the December meeting, we will be holding a Quilt Guild Bingo! The idea was originally published in September/October 2006 Fons and Porter. Each member is asked to make a fabric bingo card and use buttons as markers. The tickets will be called out, ie "Under the blue row, paisley." If you have such a square, place a button marker on that square. The first person to cover one row of 5 squares in any direction wins.

The card is made up of 25 – 2.5 inch fabric squares. You will need to make 5 color rows: 1) blue 2) red 3) green 4) yellow&/or orange 5) pink &/or purple of fabric in the following categories: batik, dot, floral, geometric, heart, leaf, metallic, holiday, novelty, paisley, plaid, solid, star, stripe, or 1930's print. The rows can be in any order, except that row #3 must have a black centre square.

From the above sample: left row, from top to bottom: Blue batik, blue novelty, blue plaid, blue stars or hearts, blue flowers or leaves. Note that it is possible that the same square can be in more than one category, but the blue star or heart, cannot be a red heart. Even though the heart itself is red, it is not in the red row.
