September 10 Guild Meeting

Shelly Swanland has had a medical emergency and will be unable to present her scheduled September trunk show. But not to worry, Sue Fiscali agreed to move her trunk show from October to September. Along with her fabulous quilts, she'll be describing what has inspired her creations and how she began her quilting journey.

October 8 Guild Meeting

Scandinavian Stars – a "Make-n-Take" experience. Julie Tracy will guide us through the star-making process. You'll need to bring 4 pieces of fabric for your Star that measures 12" x 3 1/4 ". If you like Christmas stars, think about snowflake or icicle fabric. Julie will provide additional information for her star project at the September meeting.

November 12 Guild Meeting

The UFO reveal is finally here. Those that signed up to complete their UFO's will have an opportunity to share their completed projects. Wahoo!!!

From our President

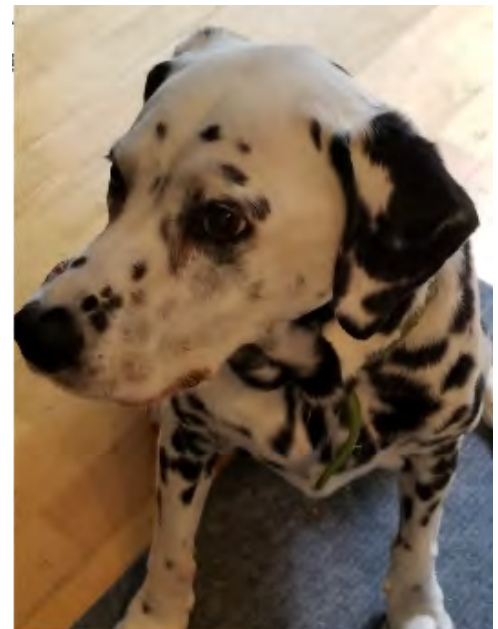

Dian Robinson

September is here!

As quilters, I understand turning a quilting mistake into a "design variation" so I applaud the ladies (and Sue Fiscali) for turning a medical emergency from our speaker into an opportunity to move our programs around to fill the bill. I was disappointed to hear about Shelly Swanland's absence from our September meeting as she was one of the first quilting instructors I took a class from; did everyone take the cathedral window workshop from her? I have met fewer people who didn't take that class!

I am finishing up my UFO project and getting started on a quilt (finally) for my sister. Originally the UFO was going to be her quilt, but she upgraded to a larger bed and thus foiling my surprise quilt. I will start the new (larger) quilt in a few days but have met with some roadblocks. First of all, I am trying to get some gardening done on my yard as the weather will soon start turning cooler.

Secondly, and probably the biggest challenge, was having to put our older dog to sleep this week. Honestly, being in the medical field I know she is not in any more pain but after almost 14 years it's like losing a family member. Those of you who were lucky enough to meet Skyler know she could be a pill, but she the unconditional love an animal gives you leaves a giant quiet hole in the household when they leave. I know I'm not the only one to go through this, but nevertheless, I'm desperately sad. RIP sweet girl.

Library News

Irene Dailey

I hope all of you had fun looking through the big collection of retired books at the August meeting! Thanks for taking them to good homes.

The Library has two new books: Artful Log Cabin Quilts, by Katie Pasquini Masopust. Have you wanted to try making an “art” quilt, but you don’t know where to begin? Katie uses a traditional favorite, log cabin pieced blocks. in creative ways to turn photos into modern art quilts.

Art Quilt Collage, by Deborah Boschert. Deborah gives simple steps to use fabric, hand-stitching threads, paints and pens to create and layer little collages. She has simplified design and composition elements to help you along the way.

Block Of The Month

Janice Benedict, Karen Hogan

Thanks to all the participants in this years BOM project. We had such an amazing Show and Tell at the August meeting with so many beautiful quilts. We will have a new project beginning in January.

Seven Sister’s SLO Guild Raffle Coordinator

Robbie Bos

I’ll be your 2019 SLO Guild Raffle Coordinator for the Seven Sister’s Quilt Show. I’m the new Smitty of Fat Quarters. Watch for my basket at the monthly guild meetings. I’ll be collecting “FAT QUARTERS” for the 2019 quilt show. Smitty annually reported that we donated the most fabric for the raffle. Let’s not let this tradition fall short. I’ll begin collecting FAT Quarters at the September meeting.

Signe, our Queen of Charity Quilts, is feted with flowers, as she shares some of the many, many quilts made for local needs.

Meeting Minutes

Barbara Klaubers

Meeting called to order by President Dian R at 7 PM

Announcements: Guests this evening are Joslyn and Sherry with several new members. Jeanne Carmichael is collecting quilts for a veteran's surfing program to be held in October. Dian is putting together the nominating committee made up of Board and general membership. The Budget for the 2018-2019 year was presented. Kathi S made a motion to accept it, Jill seconded and it was passed.

Hospitality: Many lovely prizes as always.

Seven Sisters Quilt Show: Irene thanked all the volunteers who helped with the successful show. Volunteers needed for next year include Acquisitions team, Set up and Take down and Raffle and Ads. Each guild made $4,884 from the show. The quilts for sale was generally a success but some changes will be made for next year including a location inside the building.

Library Irene has weeded the old library books and they are available for adoption this evening.

Show and Tell: Lovely, interesting quilts including one Susan Knowles made in a Judy Niemeyer class taught by Patsy Carpenter.

Programs Barbara McP handed out a questionnaire about desired future programs. Shelley Swanland won't be able to come in September and instead Sue Fiscalini will do a trunk show. This evenings program will be

Block of the month finished quilts and Community quilts. Block of the Month had wonderful participation with 13 finished quilts shown. Community Quilts: Signe gave an overview of the program. Organizations we donate to are SART, Central Coast Infusion Center, TAPP, Quilts of Valor, Mission View nursing home, the Homeless Shelter and special needs as they occur. Jan-Dec 2017 we donated 420 quilts of which 221 went to SART. We are a little behind that pace this year. Signe passed out packets and special fabrics and projects followed by a SART quilt Show and Tell.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 PM.

On August 22, Meri Kay Gurnee, Judy Fry, and Ruth Meador awarded a Quilt of Valor made by Judy Fry to Anthony (Toney) Lees at his home in Arroyo Grande. Pictured are Judy Fry and Tony Lees.
